7. All articles for exhibition or competition must be entered by 5 o'clock p. m., on Wednesday, the 13th, and remain on the ground until Saturday at 12 o'clock, M. when they will be at the disposal of the exhibitor.

8. No gambling or game of chance of any kind whatever will be allowed upon or in the vicinity of the fair grounds. And for the purpose of preventing the nuisance of any person in the ground with games of chance, and to provide for the expulsion of any who shall by any means gain admission, there will be no license granted to any persons entering with exhibitions or for the purpose of selling any articles, by the Librarian of the Association, at his discretion, if the object of admission is lawful and proper, upon the payment of such sum as he may deem legitimate, which license shall be forfeited and the holder thereof driven from the grounds immediately upon the detection by the Librarian, or upon information given him by any person, of the practice of any game of chance or gambling by the person holding such license. And without license as aforesaid, no person will be permitted to give an exhibition of any kind for personal profit, or expose any article for sale upon the grounds.

9. No license will be granted to stands that sell spirituous or malt liquors.

10. CAUTION!—All articles exhibited, whether entables or not, must be respected as private property; and any person detected in pilfering or injuring them, will be dealt with according to law.

11. Judges appointed to examine the different classes, will confer a favor on the Association by calling at the secretary's office early on Thursday morning to obtain instructions.

12. The reports of the several Judges must be passed upon and approved by the Revising Committee before orders will be drawn for Premiums.

13. Premiums awarded to persons residing out of the town of Bloomsburg, will be paid on the afternoon of the last day of the Fair, by the Treasurer, on presentment of their proper orders.

On Wednesday the grounds will be open to the public and continue open four days.

No person will be permitted to vote at the next annual election of the Association without producing his membership ticket.

Exhibitors will confer a favor on the Society by sending a list of the articles they wish to exhibit, to the Secretary, as early as possible, that they may be entered previous to the first day of the fair; or leave them at the office of T. Jeff. Vanderslice, where they will be called for.

SIMMONS LIVER DISEASE and indigestion prevail to a greater extent than probably any other malady, and relief is always anxiously sought after. Hitherto health is almost invariably secured. Indigestion or want of action in the liver causes Headache, Constipation, Jaundice, Pain in the Shoulders, Cough, Dizziness, Sour Stomach, bad taste in the mouth, bilious attacks, palpitation of the heart, depression of spirits or the blues, and a hundred other symptoms SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR is the best remedy that has ever been discovered for these ailments. It acts mildly, effectually, and being a simple vegetable compound, can do no injury in any quantities that may be taken. It is harmless in every way. It has been used for forty years, and hundreds from all parts of the country will vouch for its virtues, viz: Hon. Alexander H. Stephens, of Georgia; Bishop Pierce, of Georgia; John Gill Shorter of Alabama; Gen. John B. Gordon, R. I. Moll, of Columbus, Georgia, are among the hundreds to whom we can refer. Extract of a letter from Alexander H. Stephens, dated March 8, 1871: "I occasionally use when my condition requires it, Dr. Simmons' Liver Regulator, with good effect. It is mild, and suits me better than more active medicine."

It is not the quality eaten that gives strength, life, blood and health. It is the thorough digestion of the food taken that does it. It be much or little. Therefore do not stimulate up the stomach to crave food, but rather assist digestion after eating by taking

TRUMBULL THUKS.

The Great Illinois Orator on the Stump.

HOW THE DEMOCRACY SUSTAINED THE UNION.

From the Speech of Hon. Lyman Trumbull, at Belleville, Illinois.

But I have not done with this false claim of the republican party. I propose to-day to bury it so deep by facts and figures that only the dupes of demagogues can longer be gulled by it. The Democratic state of Missouri alone, in which Mr. Lincoln received but 17,028 votes in 1860 furnished 109,111 men to the Union Army—a greater number than furnished by all the republican states of Vermont, Rhode Island, Minnesota, Nebraska and Kansas put together. Neither Michigan Wisconsin nor Iowa furnished as many troops to the Union army as Missouri. John A. Dix and Daniel S. Dickson, of New York, Lewis Cass, of Michigan, and Stephen A. Douglass, of this state, all life-long Democrats and leaders of that party, the moment Fort Sumpter was fired upon came out in public speeches for the Union. Gen Cass said:

'He who is not for his country is against her. There is no neutral ground to be occupied.

Douglas declared:

'There can be no neutrals in this war—only patriots or traitors. * * * I express it as my conviction before God that it is the duty of every American citizen to rally around the flag of his country.'

The eloquent Baker, then Senator from Oregon, said:

'We are all Democrats, we are all Republicans. We acknowledge the sovereignty of the people within the rule of the constitution, and under that constitution and beneath that flag let traitors beware.'

Had the Democrats favored the rebellion as they are now falsely charged by the republicans with having done, it must have been a success, and this glorious Union, with its present greatness and hopes for the future, must have perished from the earth. So far from the Republican party having put down the rebellion and saved the Union, it was the patriotic Democrats with Republicans, who rallied to its support and that saved it, a thing which neither could have done without the aid of the other. What and whom would the Republican soldiers of Illinois have had to meet had it been true, as Republicans falsely charged, that the Democrats of the state opposed the war? As I have shown already, they would have had to meet, in the first instance, nearly an equal number of Democrats of our own state, and who would have led him? Generals Grant and Logan, both of whom at that time were Democrats. The only vote for president ever cast by General Grant was for James Buchanan, and General Logan, as late as 1862 a member of Congress, elected by Democrats, and acting with the Democratic party. I do not mention this by way of assailing General Grant or General Logan, both of whom performed gallant service for their country, but they were both Democrats when they entered the army, whatever they may be now. It would be a reflection upon either of these gentlemen, as it would be, and is, upon every true soldier, to say that he entered the service as a partisan or for party purposes. In the language of the eloquent Baker, we are all Democrats, we are all Republicans, in our efforts to save the Union, and no man deserves the name of patriot who entered his country's service merely for selfish or party purposes. Let us hear no more of this false claim of Republicans that they crushed out the rebellion. As well might it be claimed that the Democrats did it, for without their aid it could not have been done.

Nor is it true that the Republicans abolished slavery. That was the result of circumstances, and was accomplished by what is known as the thirteenth amendment to the constitution of the United States which I had the honor of reporting to the Senate of the United States, by which it was passed April 8, 1864, by the requisite two thirds vote. But it failed in the House of Representatives. The vote by which it was defeated was reconsidered at the next session, and it was then passed. So you see that the claim of the Republican party that it abolished slavery, like many of its other claims, is false.

It seems to me that no original Republican who pefers principle to party, right to wrong, and fairness to dishonesty, can longer act with such an organization.

Saturday October 2nd is the last day for payment of taxes, Don't forget it.

A cartridge factory at Bridgeport, Conn., was blown up last Friday. The building was demolished and four men and a boy blown to pieces.

The latest returns from Maine show that Plaisted is elected by a plurality of 174. The official count will not be made until the legislature meets next January.

The Mormons have established a recruiting station in Virginia. They do not preach any polygamous doctrine as yet, their object being to organize a colony to proceed to Utah.

What do the Republicans think of themselves now, who called the Democrats "fools" for celebrating the victory in Maine last week? It wasn't so very much too soon after all, was it? All sides now concede the election of Plaisted.

A Hancock procession in Philadelphia last Saturday night was composed of 19 825 men in line. Speeches were made by Senator Wallace and others. It was the grandest demonstration that city has witnessed for many years.

The big Hancock meeting at Pittsburg last Saturday was presided over by a life long Republican and one hundred Republican Vice Presidents. The speakers were all republicans. It was one of the biggest meetings ever held there. The Philadelphia Times wants to know why Cessna don't get up a Garfield Democratic demonstration We presume it is for the same reason that Jack did not eat his supper.

The Democratic Congressional Conferees of Pike county have been instructed to support George H. Rowland. It is reported that Rowland intends to run as an independent candidate if he does not get the nomination in this district. If such is his present intention he ought not to be permitted to come before the conference unless he will pledge himself to stand by its action. Major Klotz will be nominated for Congress in the eleventh district, and he will be elected by a majority of 6,000 at least.

It is now asserted that Weaver, the Greenback candidate for President, is in the pay of the republican party, and indeed everything points that way. In Alabama, where the Greenbackers and Republicans fused, he was heart and soul with them, but in Maine where the fusion was with the Democrats Weaver denounced the Union, refused to speak at fusion meetings, and the chairman of his state committee resigned and went over to the republicans. Weaver will not receive a single electoral vote. To vote for him is to throw a ballot away. Vote with the winning side, and when Hancock is inaugurated you will have the pleasure of knowing that you helped put him there.

The insult received at the republican convention last Monday by Geo. W. Mears, a man who lost his left arm in the service of his country, is one that Union soldiers will not forget. He was a candidate for the office of representative and was nominated with Geo. W. Buckingham without a dissenting voice, whereupon Mr. Buckingham refused to be a candidate, whether because he did not wish to be on the ticket with a one-armed soldier, or because he wanted to run alone, he did not state, but after Mr. Mears had been ruthlessly kicked out of the convention, he accepted the nomination. If Mears was not a proper man for the place he ought not to have been unanimously nominated by acclamation in the first instance. To put him on the ticket, and then strike him down the next moment, was an act which only the republican party would be guilty of. It shows that they meant what they said when they declared "the soldier business is played out." They have no place for Union soldiers, though they have selected a number of rebel brigadiers for important positions.

The fight is waxing warm in Indiana and Ohio. The prospects of Democratic victories in both States are very encouraging. The Republicans are discouraged and demoralized by their inglorious defeat in Maine.

General Hancock left the field on a stretcher and returned before his wounds were healed. General Garfield left the field before powder commenced to burn, to take a seat in congress, and never returned. This is the military record of the two candidates in a nut shell.

Whom the Gods destroy they first make mad. This accounts for the present bad temper of the republican party. They call Democrats "fools" because we celebrate their complete overthrow in Maine. Their dying contortions here and everywhere are fearful to behold.

The campaign in Lycoming county is progressing most favorably. Never within the recollection of the oldest inhabitant have the Democracy been better organized, or more enthusiastic than at present. There are many changes among the soldier element and with the farmers, and there is every reason to believe that the county will give from three to five hundred increased majority.

The Origin of the Greenback Cause.

The fact is pretty well understood throughout the country that Weaver, the Greenback candidate for President, is playing into the hands of the Republicans, and that he is now under pay to hold as many Democrats as possible to the organization. Why will they be deluded and lose their votes for the purpose of helping Garfield.

THE SOLID FACTS OF SATURDAY NIGHT.

The Philadelphia Press (Rep.) September 20th, contains the following despatch from Bloomsburg:

Special Dispatch to the Press.

"BLOOMSBURG, September 19.—The Republicans held a jollification meeting on Saturday night here, and in the midst of it the Democratic President of Council ordered his police to arrest the Chairman of the County Committee and the President of the meeting. Without preferring any charges they imposed on each a fine of five dollars. The meeting was resumed on their release, when an organized body of Democrats on the opposite side of the street tried to drown the voices of the speakers by cheering for Hancock. Eloquent speeches were made by D. A Beckley, A. M. Parker, of Michigan, and J. C. Brown. The enthusiasm was unbounded and it was one of the largest meetings ever held in Bloomsburg."

In this Sunday despatch, hurried off by some anonymous Radical to slur his own Town and his neighbors, and to run its course in party papers abroad, we have both falsehood stated and truth suppressed.

1st. It is not true that there was a Republican meeting in progress which was interrupted by the arrest of Beckley and Brown. There was a crowd upon the street and fire works let off—an exhibition, but no speaking or organization of a meeting to be interrupted. The speaking, such as it was, was to an unorganized crowd, and afterwards.

2nd. The exhibition going on was dangerous, disorderly and unlawful, and had been expressly forbidden by the Town authorities before it was begun, and was also forbidden after it was begun, before any arrests were made.

3rd. There was no "organized body of Democrats on the opposite side of the street," or anywhere else in Town, that evening. There were plenty of men and boys about, of all sorts, when the heroes of the evening made violent and abusive street speeches to the crowd subsequent to their arrest. These, very naturally, produced some excitement, and disturbance, but fortunately no actual collision or violence. The statement in the despatch that the meeting or gathering was "one of the largest ever held in Bloomsburg," is ridiculously false.

4. Equally untounded is the assertion that Beckley and Brown were fined by the President of the Council without any charge against them. That officer, (who has the powers of a magistrate,) was personally present, directed the Town Constable to notify the offenders to desist, and upon their defiant refusal, directed him to bring them before him. They were so brought and fined five dollars each, for exploding fire works in the Town. As peace officers of the Town, the President and constables enforced public authority against contumacious offenders for an offense openly committed, openly charged against them and wholly undenied.

From among legal regulations for the good order and safety of the Town, may be cited the following:

Town Ordinance No. 6, passed May 27, 1872, provides:

"That it shall not be lawful to fire any fire crackers or squibs of any description or kind, upon any day, within the limits of the town of Bloomsburg; And any person or persons firing or causing to be fired such fire crackers or squibs within the limits of said Town shall, upon conviction before the President of Town Council, forfeit and pay a fine not exceeding five dollars for each offense." Firing rocket squibs to the manifest danger of roofs and property in the neighborhood, by full grown office-holders, should be just as promptly stopped as fire cracker throwing upon the street by small boys on the Fourth of July! To be sure the patriotic "small boy" has no vote; but Postmasters and Notaries Public have no more right than he has to violate the good order and regulations of the Town.

A cavil is made upon the meaning of the word "Squib" in the above Ordinance; a word which while it includes the common fire cracker, has a wider signification. It covers in addition any "little pipe or cylinder of paper filled with powder or combustible matter, and sent into the air, burning and bursting with a crack," (Webster); or as Richardson puts it, in general terms, "a miselle fire work."

All this disturbance arose from an attempt to impose by bluster and show upon the ignorant, to palm off upon them an inglorious defeat in Maine, as an actual victory, coupled with a design to interfere with Mr. Boyd Robison's little greenback meeting in the Opera House. The celebration, in its avowed object, was a mockery and a sham. The Republicans had lost in Maine fifteen thousand votes compared with 1876, and the vote on Governor there was so close, that the result was unknown and disputed. It turns out, by the latest returns, that they were beaten on that vote and still more largely beaten on the vote for Congressmen. And yet, forsooth, they must celebrate the Maine election or pretend to do so, and raise a disturbance in the Town by their manner of doing it; for excitement and disturbance were inevitable or at least natural results of their conduct. No meeting of their's held in a regular or usual manner, has been or will be disturbed. Even Mr. Lloyd's abusive speech at their meeting on Tuesday was not resented, but was simply well answered and repelled by a gentleman, speaking as a gentleman, the next evening.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

Washington, D. C. Sep. 18th, 1880.

THE MORAL OF THE MAINE ELECTION—HOW IT IS FELT IN WASHINGTON—DISMAYED GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEES.

The Maine election has been much talked about during the past three days. Coming immediately after the election in Vermont, its result has been most depressing on the population of the Capital, to many of whom it means ruin. Of course there is a strong endeavor to find a bright side to the picture, and government clerks get together and cheer one another with such optimistic views as: "This will only nerve the party to greater effort in October and November." It came soon enough but not too late to warn us of our danger. "We will now work as we never worked before," &c., &c. But they cannot shut out the appalling fact that they have lost the first contested state. A state that they hoped to carry by from 5,000 to fifteen thousand majority. Nor can they close their eyes to the fact that Hancock is stronger than his party in Maine! that a state confidentially claimed by their party, and conceded to them by the Democrats, will, in all human probability, cast its vote in the electoral college for the Democratic nominee.

They congratulate themselves that they have saved the legislature and their representation in Congress. Hannibal Hamlin will succeed himself, or be succeeded by a Republican in the Senate. But no prophet is required to predict that James G. Blaine will not succeed himself after the National administration has been for three years in the hands of the Democrats. With that fire brand eliminated from national politics the country may hope for a rest. In retirement or even in a hopeless minority, he will still rant and yell, but his voice will lose its oracular twang.

When I remember what efforts the Republicans made to carry Maine I am all the more suprised at the result. Logan, the loudest, if not the most eloquent of the Grant triumvirate, has been on almost every stump in the pine tree state; Conger and Hoar, of Michigan, were there; Bob Ingersoll, who draws as big houses as Beecher or a circus, lent his assistance! hosts of foreign and local orators made the air vocal from the coasts to the Canadian border with their cries of warning of defiance, of rage. The Democrats made but little effort to carry the state. Three weeks ago their orators were recalled, and an order was issued to expend no more money where it would do so little good. Now the question naturally suggests itself, if we can do so well without effort, how much better can we and ought we to do when the issue is to rescue the country from radicalism, and to condemn nationally a national fraud in a party and in one of its chief abettors.

HILTON.

DEMOCRATIC POLE RAISING.

EDITORS COLUMBIAN:

The Democratic Pole raising here on Saturday, Sept. 18th 1880, was one of the pleasantest episodes and most glorious epochs in the history of the party in this township. Never, in the recollection of the oldest Democrat, was there so much interest and such unbounded enthusiasm manifested as there was on this occasion. Long before the time for meeting had arrived the people came flocking in by scores, and by one o'clock the crowd was simply immense. There were representatives present from Pottsville, Bloomsburg, Numedia, Slabtown and a great many from Northumberland county and other points.

The pole is, according to the unanimous opinion of those present, the nicest they have ever seen raised. It measures one hundred and twenty three feet in length and has but one splice. Its diameter at the base is sixteen inches and it tapers gradually from there to the top where there is a little bunch of branches and green leaves giving it the appearance of life. The pole is also decorated with a beautiful banner and a transparency on which is printed the names of the candidates in brilliant letters. Raising the pole consumed nearly all of the afternoon so that the time of "speech making" was very limited. Notwithstanding this Messrs John M. Clark (substitute for Col. Freeze,) B. Frank Zarr and John C. Yocum of Bloomsburg, each made a short, spicy, speech on the issues of the day to the entire satisfaction of those present, unless it was the Republicans.

There were several Republicans present, a few of whom took an active part in raising the pole, and it is the opinion of many that they are about ready to espouse the glorious cause of our gallant leader—Hancock.

By the way, in the evening of this eventful day, after the band had finished playing "Hail Columbia" and the crowd had dispersed and the noise and tumult of the day had subsided: after night had drawn down her sable curtain and pined with a star; after the silvery moon appeared above the Eastern horizon and was casting her pale light down over the shadowy valley and around the Hancock pole where the stars and stripes were floating in the soft, gentle, zephyrs of evening. After all was quiet and the people of the vicinity were reveling in "nature's sweet restorer, balmy sleep;" now just at this auspicious moment, the neighbors were called, (the female portion of them) another meeting was held. I guess it was a Democratic ratification meeting—well—it's—a—boy and I am informed his name is to be Winfield Scott Hancock ——. Now, who will dare to say that a man is not an important factor in the politics of our country?

The Republicans might as well throw up the sponge now and acknowledge their defeat. When new born babies assume the name of Hancock and "land him to the stars" with their first breath, it means something.

If Chairman Lowenberg asks for the news from Locust, or desires to anticipate the result in the present campaign, tell him to mark us first, last and all the time as solid for Hancock and English and the pure old Jacksonian Democracy.

The Pension Business.

Ex-Gov. Curtin's Williamsport speech.

I have looked up the law and I find that from 1866 to 1875, the Republican party being in power, Union soldiers received from $8 to $30 per month, the latter being for total disability. In 1875, for disability, it was raised to $50, allowing nothing for artificial arms and legs. But in 1876, when the democrats got control of Congress—"the rebel brigadiers" as the Republicans call them—the limbs of the soldiers were replaced and renewed, and in 1878 the pension was raised to $82 a month for those who had lost both arms, or both eyes, or both legs. In 1879 a law passed giving arrears to all soldiers, and allowing pensions from the date of disability or discharge. Thus they got their back pay from the "rebel brigadiers" Soldiers should bear in mind that a Republican acting as president vetoed the arrearages of pensions bill, and a Democratic Congress passed the bill over his veto.

The Hancock Demonstration at Pittsburg.

At a great meeting at Pittsburg on Saturday night, held under the auspices of Hancock republicans, addressed by General Butler and Colonel Forney, Paul Carson, one of the most prominent and intelligent colored men of Allegheny county was one of the vice-Presidents. A number of other colored men were also officers of the meeting. After the adjournment of the meeting a committee of colored people called on General Butler to express their thanks for his services in behalf of their race. General Butler told them that he had waited for sixteen years for the republican party to give the necessary protection to the colored people, but he did not intend to wait four years longer. He would now look to the Democratic party for that purpose and believed he would not be disappointed. While the meeting was in progress Colonel Forney received the following telegrams:

PHILADELPHIA, September 18, 1880—Hon. John W. Forney: The subjoined republicans of Philadelphia, who have long followed your lead and have heard your voice in favor of the great doctrines taught by Lincoln and Sumner, and read your magnificent appeals in favor of the forgiveness of our Southern brethren, and in zealous advocacy of liberty to the slaves, now join you in doing honor to the favorite son of Pennsylvania, and the surviving son of the glorious triumvirate who saved our great State from invasion—Winfield Scott Hancock.

[This dispatch is signed by one hundred and two names.]

PHILADELPHIA, September 18—Dear Colonel Forney: The cry is still they come. Hang out your banners on the outward walls The largest and most enthusiastic political meeting ever held in Philadelphia is now going on here. Over 2,000 Hancock republicans in line, and, like their old commander always forming in the front rank.

GARFIELD, THE PRETENDED PROTECTIONIST IS REALLY A FREE TRADER.

From Col Forney's speech at Pittsburgh.

In considering the tariff question, in which you are so deply interested, I need not assure you that I have always favored the protective system. Its leading companions in this State have been my personal friends, and whenever a practical issue relating to this subject has been raised during the last generation I have united with them in battling for the interests of our noble Commonwealth. In these struggles one of the most insidious and dangerous opponents we have have had to encounter was James A. Garfield. He has been a decided supporter of the free trade theories which some of the Eastern and Western Republicans habitually support. He favored a reduction of the duty on pig iron when all Pennsylvania Congressmen opposed such a reduction. He opposed the abolition of the duty on tea and coffee when all Pennsylvania protectionists contended for that measure. He voted for the ten per cent. reduction of the duties on all manufactured products that came into competition with the industries of our State when that insidious and injurious measure was opposed by all the true friends of American industries. General Garfield has been dazed by the glamor and the fanciful honor of being elected a member of the Cobden Club. He has been ready to sacrifice your interests for the sake of winning applause, or possibly more substantial reward from competing British manufacturers. So far was this subserviency to foreign interests carried during fourteen years of Congressional service that when Garfield was elected, in 1877, as the caucus nominee of the Republican party for the Speakership of the House of Representatives, five of the Republican Congressmen of Pennsylvania, including some of your immediate Representatives, refused to vote for General Garfield on account of the zeal he had displayed in advocating free trade measures.

It should be the aim of every owner of Horses, Cows, &c., to make them as handsome and useful as possible. The German Horse and Cow Powder helps to develop all the powers of the animal. Scribner is now ten years old, and the managers seem disposed to celebrate the fact by a November number of unusual strength. No fewer than four large engravings by Cole will be given, and other well-known engravers will be duly represented. The literary quality will be remarkable, and the contributions will include an essay on Whitman, by Stedman; a fine study of Gladstone, by a Member of Parliament; a descriptive paper on the Bordentown, (N. J.) Bonapartes, more of the pathetic life of Millet, a critique of the painter Vedder, a stirring account of the battle of Mobile Bay, apropos of the new statue of Farragut, by St. Gaudens, and some practical suggestions about Tableaux with illustrations. The first chapters, (twenty eight pages) of "Peter the Great as Ruler and Reformer," and of "Tiger Lily," a new short serial, and one or two other features not yet to be announced, will make up a rich and able number.

The London medical journals report the case of a girl who has slept uninterruptedly for six months. They must have let her read a book of English jokes.

850 English miners die annually from accidents.

An Ohio man has patented paper window shutters.

Hugh Glenn, the great California farmer, has 45,000 acres in wheat alone.

Eight newspapers were started in Paris last year; four are surviving.

It is estimated that Michigan has 110,840 farms and produces 18,000,000 bushels of wheat per annum.

The cotton manufactories of Pittsburg, Virginia, have 26,000 spindles, 900 looms and employ nearly 1000 hands.

Colonel Mosby writes home from Hong Kong that he will vote as he shot—against Hancock.

The Nova Scotia gold mines are said to have produced more than $6,000,000 in eighteen years.

An eminent Boston preacher once said that it was mockery to pray at night for sweet and refreshing sleep without seeing to it that the bedroom is well ventilated.

Colonel Mosby, the United States Consul at Hong Kong, was charged on the 30th of July with an assult with a spear on an American seaman. After hearing the evidence the magistrate cautioned Col. Mosby, and dismissed the summons.

San Francisco society is deeply interested in a report that Miss Flood, to whom U. S. Grant, Jr., was engaged, has jilted the young man. He appeared in public with a girl described as "not over nice," and when Miss Flood heard of it she terminated the engagement. The property loss to young Grant is something like $2,500,000.

It so happened that a majority of the generals in the Union army during the war were democrats. General McClellen, General Hancock, General Franklin, General Rosecrans, General Meade, General Hooker, General Thomas, General Scofield, General McClelland, General Slocum, General Buell General Smith and General Palmer, are a few conspicious examples.

At a recent anniversary celebration of the battle of North Point, near Baltimore, ten of the sixteen survivors marched in the procession. Their ages ranged from 83 to 95, and the eldest carried the flags they defended—the identical one which, on that occasion, incited Key to write "The Star Spangled Banner"

Rupture

DR. J. A. SHERMAN—AND THE ONLY DR. SHERMAN known to the public for the past 35 years or more for his successful method of treating Rupture without the annoyance and injury trusses inflict, may now be consulted personally at his New York and Boston offices. Dr. Sherman is the discoverer of the only known cure for Rupture by local external treatment.

No man is safe who has a Rupture, no matter how insignificant he may consider it, for every man who has died from it once flattered himself that it was a trifling ailment; and every man who now suffers from it and the injury of trusses to such an extent that life has no enjoyments, once regarded it as unworthy special attention. It is not a stand-still affliction; it is steadily progressive, even unto death, and he is wise who takes the necessary steps to be effectually relieved from it before the day of suffering and gloom comes upon him.

Patients from abroad can receive treatment and leave for home same day. During treatment any kind of active exercise or labor can be performed without interfering with the treatment, and with safety from the dangers of strangulated Rupture. HIS BOOK ON RUPTURE gives the most reliable proofs from distinguished professional gentlemen, clergymen, and merchants of his successful practice and popularity the reform throughout this country and the West Indies. The afflicted should read it and inform themselves.

It is illustrated with photographic likenesses of extremely bad cases before and after cure, and mailed to those who send 10 cents In consequence of the great demand for Dr. Sherman's personal services, he will till further notice, divide his time between his New York and Boston offices as follows: Saturday, Monday and Tuesday he may be consulted at his New York office and Wednesday, Thursday and Friday at his Boston office, each week. The Catawissa Hancock club meeting on Saturday night was addressed by John M. Clark and B. F. Zarr.

J. J. Brower is putting some improvements on his residence in the shape of a new roof and cornice; and a portico along the front.

Jacob L. Girton brought a full blooded Arabian stallion in town on Wednesday evening. It is a beautiful horse.

Rev. L. Zahner will return from his vacation this week, and services will be resumed in St. Paul's church on Sunday next.

The Rescue hose carriage has arrived. The company have just purchased handsome new uniforms, and they had a parade with their carriage on Tuesday night, headed by the band.

If the fire-works ordinance is wrong let it be repealed. So long as it stands as the law of the town it ought to be strictly enforced against all offenders, of whatever party or condition in life.

Brown says he believes the democracy of this county are willing to cheer the southern confederacy because they cheer Hancock. That is a fair sample of the loyalty, and gratitude the republican party are showing to one of the bravest Union Generals of the nation.

Early on last Friday morning, Joseph Hucker, landlord of the old Keyser stand at the foot of the North Mountain, had two horses stolen. One of them being sick, gave out, and the other was hitched to Widow Doty's buck-board, Being closely pursued, and overtaken by day light, they abandoned their booty near Jonestown, where they evidently expected to cross the Nob Mountain.

A large meeting of the Democracy was held in Briarcreek last Thursday night. Charles Campbell was elected Chairman, and Enos Dieterick and Levi Shafler, Vice Presidents. Ringing speeches were made by Major Hanley, H. E. Smith, C. B. Jackson, Dr. H. L. Frenz, Daniel McHenry and F. S. Hopkins. There was music by the band, and great enthusiasm. The Democracy were never better organized than now.

The Winona boys were out with their carriage one night last week, to practice making the attachment of the hose with the fire plug at the lower end of Market street. They accomplished it in a remarkably short space of time. On their way to the carriage house, they put on some speed, and got over the ground very rapidly. We are informed that some of the heavy weights left the rope just before the running began.

Do not fail to attend the Camp Fire commencing on Thursday morning at the Fair Grounds. Will be kept burning for three days and nights. The principal attractions will be the Bean Soup, Hard Tack, and other Army Attractions which can be had at the commissary's at a reasonable price, and those wishing such common fare as Oysters, Ice Cream, &c., can get them at the Sutler's Tent, if they have the cash or first-class credit. A large platform will be erected and presided over by an experienced dancing master and those wishing to can trip the light fantastic to the music of the regimental or other band.

This is not a personal campaign. It is the principles of the party and not of the man, that should be discussed. So say republican orators They tell us that the principles of the republican party are the principles of the man, and we agree with them. Whatever a party endorses becomes a part of its principles. The republican party has endorsed Garfield, and as his record as a politician and statesman was what led them to take him up, his nomination is an endorsement of his whole record, Credit Mobilier, De Golyer pavement, Cobden Free Trade Club, and all. Thus far republican speakers in this section have left Garfield and his record entirely alone. They dare not discuss it, and yet by their own showing his record is included in the principles of that party Will honest and intelligent American citizens support a man for the high office of President whose reputation as a public man is so bad that his party friends dare not discuss it?

Upon notice by the citizens of Locust township for a meeting on the evening of the 21st inst., to organize a Hancock and English club at Slabtown, Wm. Krickbaum, H. E. Smith, T. J. Vanderslice, David Jones, Jno. W. Hoffman and Sheriff Ent from Bloomsburg, were in attendance.

The meeting was organized by the following officers: President, Daniel Stine; Vice Presidents, Henry Gable and Christian Small; Secretaries, Sol. Straussser and Mayberry Snyder; Treasurer, Samuel Adams; Canvassing Committee, Rolandus Herbein, Montilius Yeager and Wellington Yeager. Speeches were made by H. E Smith, Wm. Krickbaum and T. J. Vanderslice About two hundred voters joined the club. The meeting adjourned with rousing cheers for Hancock and English and a pledge that every Democratic voter of Locust township would be at the polls to vote for Hancock and English. The next meeting of the club to be on the evening of the 29th, and will be addressed by John C. Yocum, Esq. A number of Republicans here will vote for Hancock.

SPIRITS AT THE OPERA HOUSE.

Last evening Prof. Cecil gave his marvelous entertainment in the opera house to a good audience. The following letter speaks for itself:

We, the undersigned were present at the Academy of Music, Scranton, Pa., on Saturday and Monday evenings, September 18th and 20th, 1880, and witnessed the "tests" given by Prof. A. B. Cecil in his exposure of modern Spiritualism. He performed most wonderful and mysterious feats, such as the mediums declare to be done by the agency of the spirits, and then, before closing his exhibition, showed the audience how the most difficult of them were done, fully convincing us, and all willing to be convinced that all the "manifestations" were given by human skill without any spirit agency whatever.

We believe his clear and faithful exposition of spiritualism, so called, will do good service in undeceiving any who may be under its delusions, and heartily commend him in the noble work he is doing for humanity.

Wm. Taylor, Missionary from India.
Joseph E. Smith, Pastor Avenue M. E church.
E. R. Lewis, late Pastor Cong. Church.
R. W. Van Sholck, Pastor Hyde Park M. E church.
W. D. Thorp, Pastor Providence M. E. church.
Scranton, Pa., Sept. 21st, 1880.

We would advise all to see this entertainment to night as this is his last performance in Bloomsburg. All manifestations exposed to sight.

Ernest Little, Esq., of Tunkhannock, was in town on Tuesday

There will be a Democratic pole raising at Numedia on Saturday afternoon October 2nd, 1880. Good speakers will be present.

A large, nearly new, handsome, double-heating parlor stove, for sale cheap by Stuart Mitchell, corner Market and Rock streets.

The Winona Fire Company are under obligations to the Friendship for the use of hose kindly loaned until they can purchase a supply for themselves.

A Democratic Mass Meeting will be held in the grove near Waller's, in Jackson township on Saturday afternoon October 2nd. Let there be a full turn out. Good speakers will be present.

It seems that "dead ordinance" was alive last 4th of July, when a prominent republican threatened to have a police officer arrested for non performance of duty if he did not stop the boys from shooting fire crackers on the streets.

The Republican prints a dispatch sent from here by one of its friends to the Press, headed "Southern Tactics in Bloomsburg." Their own version of the case as stated elsewhere in their own paper shows that the Press dispatch wholly misrepresented the situation.

Those whose names have been placed on the registry sixty days before the election, and who have not paid their taxes must do so on or before October 2nd. The list is in the hands of Reuben Harris, collector for the town, who will receive the taxes. Democrats, attend to the matter at once.

In his speech last Saturday night J. C. Brown admitted that he did not believe the report when he heard it, that three cheers were given for the southern confederacy at a democratic meeting in this county And yet he printed it in his paper. The incressed democratic vote in this county this fall will show how much good such journalism has done the republican party.

We gladly call the attention of all who buy children's shoes, to the advertisement of the American Shoe Tip Co. in another column. As a black tip that is a perfect protection to the toes of costly shoes, while adding to their beauty, is of the first importance. Such the A. S. T. Co. Tip has proved to be.

The Greenback party posted bills on Friday announcing a mass meeting in the Opera House on Saturday evening. The Republican of last week stated that their club meeting would not be addressed on Saturday evening, the speech of Tuesday night having taken its place. The Greenbackers therefore supposed they would have nothing to interfere with them. However, on Saturday afternoon the Republican leaders arranged for an open air meeting in the evening to "celebrate Maine," and the result was that less than one hundred people went to the Opera House, and the Greenback meeting was a failure. This interference was all right, according to the republican notion, but when a large number of Democrats hurrahed for Hancock within hearing of the Republican speakers, the aspect was changed, and the cheering was denounced as a "copperhead" effort to break up a loyal meeting. It seems to make quite a difference which leg the boot is on.

CLUB MEETING.

On Wednesday, the regular evening of the club meeting at Orangeville, the club assembled at its rooms, and after the preliminary business had been transacted the club was addressed by John M. Clark, Esq., and John G. Freeze, Esq.

After the first of October the club meetings will be held regularly and some person will be on hand each evening to address it. A good hall is greatly needed Last night even, there were more persons than the room could contain.

Mister Brown, Mister Brown?
Have you heard the news from Maine,
Mr. Brown?
O, the people gave a shout,
And the Rads they tumbled out,
And that's the news from Maine,
Mister Brown.

Have you heard the news from Maine,

Have you heard the news from Maine,
Beckley Mine?
So your fire works and things,
And your brag and other flings,
Didn't spoil the news from Maine,
Beckley Mine.

Have you heard the news from Maine,
General G., General G?
Have you heard the news from Maine,
General G?
See, she heads the Hancock column
In a way that makes you solemn,
And that's the news from Maine,

"A MAMMOTH FESTIVAL."

The most successful and probably the largest festival of the season, was held in the Espy Park on Saturday the 18th, by the Espy Cornet Band. The proceeds amounted to $240 which frees the band from all encumbrance and leaves a hand-some sum in their treasury. The liberality displayed by the surrounding community, as well as the citizens of Espy, in their contributions to this festival evinces the great enthusiasm existing in favor of this young but rapidly progressing band.

The ladies took a very active part and by their endeavors succeeded in making it a general success. The large display of rare cakes, both in size and quality, elegantly finished and beautifully trimmed was truly wonderful.

The artistically arranged and nicely illuminated little park together with the beautiful evening and first class music attracted an immense crowd. Notwithstanding the large assemblage of people, the utmost quiet and harmony prevailed throughout the evening.

The Catawissa Band was escorted to the scene of festivities, by the Espy Band and furnished elegant music during the entire evening. In appreciation of which they were presented with a large and handsome cake, bearing the letters R. C., which are the initials of Mr. Rutter Creveling who contributed it to the festival.

The hours were spent so pleasantly that wheels of time seemed to revolve with renewed activity and brought the closing hour before many realized its presence. At this juncture, by special request of the visiting band, the Espy band played several pieces after which the crowd dispersed showing by their pleasant countenances that they had enjoyed themselves and remained the well wishers of the band by whom the festival was given.

The band extend their sincere thanks to Thomas Rutledge, for the use of the steamer "Montour," for the excursion of the Catawissa band from and to Catawissa.

LAST NOTICE.

Persons knowing themselves to be indebted to the undersigned on book account for job work and advertising will please settle before October 1st, 1880. The firm of Brockway & Elwell was dissolved on October 1st, 1879, and since that time we have been sending out statements frequently with but little success. Many who are well able to pay have given no attention to them. Now, our books must be closed. All accounts remaining unsettled on the first day of October, 1880, will be placed in a justice's hands for collection. As we shall send a statement to all persons indebted to us, before that time, no one can complain that they had no notice. The above does not apply to balances due on subscription, though we shall be glad to have those settled also.

Rebecca Carman, of Benton, has just received a full assortment of Millinery, Notion Goods, Lining, Silks of every shade. All goods at old prices, to which she invites the attention of the public.

The assertion that there were 2,000 people on the street last Saturday night, while the republicans were making speeches is too ridiculously absurd to need denial. But we say that there were not 600 people present. This estimate was carefully made on the spot, at the time, as we expected the Republican would claim an "immense crowd" as usual.

WINFIELD SCOTT HANCOCK.

In battle's front, thy cause thy only shield,
We know thy leadership would win the field;
And now again to thee our hearts we yield,
For thou in peace, as war, must win the field,
Winfield in war, and when the battles cease,
Winfield again in victories of Peace.
Not Gettysburg alone to thee shall yield,
But the whole Union is thy ample field.

JOHN G. FREEZE.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

The meeting of the Republicans for the purpose of making nominations for county offices was held at the Opera House last Monday afternoon. There were not over sixty persons present, delegates, spectators and all. About two o'clock J. C. Brown requested all delegates to step into one of the little side rooms on the stage for a caucus. What was done there we know not, but presume it was decided that no credentials should be called for, as no one had anything to show that he represented any district. At least no credentials were called for in the convention. In a few minutes they made their appearance from behind the scenes and J. C. Brown called the convention to order. W. M. Monroe, of Montour township, was chosen chairman. B. F. Crispin and Silas Conner were elected secretaries. The list of delegates was called and the following answered to their names:

Benton—T. F. Schuyler, R. L. F Colley.
Berwick—B. F. Crispin, L. T. Thompson.

A committee consisting of L. T. Thompson, Dr. Reber, John Cadman, E. B. Guie and S. J. Pealer was appointed on resolutions.

G. A. Buckingham of Berwick, and Geo. W. Mears of Rupert, were nominated as candidates for the legislature, by acclamation, and so declared by the chair.

Lloyd S. Winterstein was unanimously nominated as candidate for District Attorney.

Just at this time G. A. Buckingham stated that he withdrew his name as a candidate for the legislature. This seemed to upset things a little, but in a few moments they recovered and a vote being taken, it was decided that Mr. Buckingham be permitted to withdraw. This left Geo. W. Mears, a one-armed soldier, as the only nominee. E. B. Guie proposed that only one man be put in the field. He said there was no use of nominating a man who could not be elected, meaning Mears.

James Dyke proposed that the names of the two persons named be put up and voted for, and the one receiving the highest number of votes should be the candidate. The chair stated that the nominations had already been made and he could not receive such a motion. The matter was reconsidered and they took a fresh start S. C. Jayne, G. A. Buckingham and Geo. W. Mears were named, and the nominations closed. Geo. A. Buckingham was nominated, having received the digest number of votes. Mr. Buckingham made a few remarks in which he said that perhaps he might be elected, and if so, he would do his best to represent his party. S. J. Pealer was nominated for county surveyor. W. M. Monroe, Clinton Ellis, B. F. Crispin and Silas Conner were chosen Congressional conferees. S. J. Pealer, C. B. Seesholtz and Joshua Fetterman were chosen Senatorial conferees. J. C. Brown was elected chairman of the county committee. A county committee was chosen, each delegation naming a member for its district. The committee on resolutions made their report, endorsing generally everything republican. The convention adjourned.

RESOLUTIONS OF CONDOLENCE.

WHEREAS, It has pleased Almighty God in His all-wise Providence to enter our midst and remove by death K. E, daughter of J. P. and E. A. Hutchison; also C. D, son of J. M. and M. J. Ammerman, two esteemed members of our Sabbath School, therefore,

Resolved, That in the death of these children our Sabbath school has lost two devoted and worthy members; their families a dutiful and loving child, brother and sister, while we deeply feel the loss of their pleasant associations and kindly greetings. Yet we bow in humble submission to the divine will of Him who has thought it best to take them where they could enjoy more perfectly His goodness.

Resolved, That we deeply sympathize with the bereaved families and can only by way of comfort and consolation commend them to God who is too wise to err and too good to be unkind.

Resolved, That the foregoing resolutions be recorded in the record of the Sabbath school and published in the county papers and a copy be presented to each of the families of the deceased.

The Hancock club held its regular meeting on Wednesday evening. Capt. Brockway made a speech and at the close Geo. E. Elwell and William Krickbaum were successively called for and made some impromptu remarks. The hall was crowded and the music and speeches were enthusiastically received. 362 names are now on the list.

BUCKHORN NEWS.

BUCKHORN, Sep, 20, 1880.

EDS. COLUMBIAN:

Mr. E. D. Leidy and wife are spending a few days in Nanticoke.

Miss Anna Savidge has returned from her visit in Sunbury. We are sorry to state that her health is not much improved.

Mr. Thomas Metherel is confined to his bed with malaria fever. Tom is very much missed especially by the band boys.

Mr. John Appleman has returned from the Green Mountain State, but left Mrs. C. H. Dieterich there, visiting her daughter.

Dr. William Harris, of Hamburg, paid his old home a short visit. His many friends here are always glad to greet him, which was certainly manifested on Sunday evening by the large congregation that assembled to listen to an interesting address from him at the praise meeting. I.

ELECTION BALLADS.

GARFIELD IN CONGRESS.

Mister Garfield
Early in the late affray,
But our Winfield
Always in field,
Battled till the latest day.

But when Garfield
Left the war field,
Well he knew no harm could come,
For our Winfield,
He left in field,
To protect his western home.

So, when Garfield
Left the war field,
And in Congress took a seat;
Still our Winfield
He left in field,
While he sought a safe retreat.

Prudent Garfield
Left the war field,
And took Credit Mobilier!
But our Winfield
He left in field,
Fighting rebels night and day.

Prudent Garfield
Left the war field,
For DeGolyer's pavement sweet!
But our Winfield
He left in field,
Guarding well his cushioned seat.

Prudent Garfield
Left the war field,
Running off from shot and shell!
But our Winfield
He left in field,
Where the foremost fighting fell.

Prudent Garfield
Left the war field,
And the soldiers leave him too!
But our Winfield
Always in field,
Ever leads the boys in blue.

FISHINGCREEK ITEMS.

Miss Sallie Ale started for Michigan on Monday, September 20th. She intends staying with her aunt at Schoolcraft, Mich.

Miss Alice Laubach is still confined to her room. She has been sick some seven weeks. She is slowly improving.

Farmers are very busy with their fall work.

The Fishingcreek Democracy held a Hancock and English club meeting at Jonestown on Saturday evening, Sept. 18th. It was only intended for a district club meeting but the attendance was equal to some mass meetings I have attended. Warren J. Buckalew addressed the meeting, giving the records of Hancock and Garfield. Daniel McHenry followed with appropriate remarks. The Benton Band was in attendance to enliven the occasion. It is truly a Hancock band, and they play well for the chance they have had. This is the second trip they have made to our township this fall.

We expect to have a mass meeting in Fishingcreek some time before the election. I would propose Mr. John Zaner's sugar grove as the place. R.

THE PLATFORM.

The Democrats of the United States, in convention assembled, declare:

FIRST. We pledge ourselves anew to the constitutional doctrines and traditions of the Democratic party as illustrated by the teaching and example of a long line of Democratic statesmen and patriots and embodied in the platform of the last National Convention of the party.

SECOND. Opposition to centralization and to that dangerous spirit of encroachment which tends to consolidate the powers of all the departments in one, and thus to create, whatever be the form of government, a real despotism. No sumptuary laws; separation of Church or State, for the good of each; common schools fostered and protected.

THIRD. Home rule; honest money—the strict maintenance of the public faith—consisting of gold and silver and paper convertible into coin on demand; the strict maintenance of the public faith State and national, and a tariff for revenue only.

FOURTH. The subordination of the military to the civil power, and a general and thorough reform of the civil service.

FIFTH. The right to a free ballot is the right preservative of all rights, and must and shall be maintained in every part of the United States.

SIXTH. The existing Administration is the representative of conspiracy only, and its claim of right to surround the ballot boxes with troops and deputy marshals to intimidate and obstruct the elections, and the unprecedented use of the veto to maintain its corrupt and despotic power, insults the people and imperils their institutions.

SEVENTH. The great fraud of 1876 '77 by which, upon a false count of the electoral votes of two States, the candidate defeated at the polls was declared to be President, and for the first time in American history the will of the people was set aside under a threat of military violence, struck a deadly blow at our system of representative government. The Democratic party, to preserve the country from the horrors of a civil war, submitted for the time, in firm and patriotic faith that the people would punish this crime in 1880. This issue precedes and dwarfs every other. It imposes a more sacred duty upon the people of the Union than ever addressed the conscience of a nation of freemen.

EIGHTH. We execrate the course of this Administration in making places in the civil service a reward for political crime, and demand a reform by statute which shall make it forever impossible for the defeated candidate to bribe his way to the seat of a usurper by billetting villians upon the people.

NINTH. The resolution of Samuel J. Tilden not again to be a candidate for the exalted place to which he was elected by a majority of his countrymen, and from which he was excluded by the leaders of the Republican party, is received by the Democrats of the United States with sensibility, and they declare their confidence in his wisdom, patriotism and integrity unshaken by the assaults of a common enemy, and they further assure him that he is followed into the retirement he has chosen for himself by the sympathy and respect of his fellow-citizens, who regard him as one who, by elevating the standards of public morality and adorning and purifying the public service, merits the lasting gratitude of his country and his party.

TENTH. Free ships and a living chance for American commerce on the seas and on the land. No discrimination in favor of transportation lines, corporations or monopolies.

ELEVENTH. Amendment of the Burlingame treaty. No more Chinese immigration except for travel, education and foreign commerce, and therein carefully guarded.

TWELFTH. Public money and public credit for public purposes solely, and public land for actual settlers.

THIRTEENTH. The Democratic party is the friend of labor and the laboring man, and pledges itself to protect him alike against the cormorants and Commune FOURTEENTH. We congratulate the country upon the honesty and thrift of a Democratic Congress, which has reduced the public expenditure $40,000,000 a year; upon the continuation of prosperity at home and the national honor abroad, and above all, upon the promise of such a change in the Administration of the Government as shall insure us genuine and lasting reform in very department of the public service.

ORANGEVILLE ITEMS.

The Conner boys, up Pine street, have improved their residence by the addition of a veranda. This pleasant resort was greatly needed to solace the over-worked brain and aching limbs of these sons of honest toil (?)

Mr. James Harman has just stocked his cabinet shop with an assortment of new furniture.

Dr. Megargell is renovating his barn.

Mr. Camden Mears, our butcher, is putting up a new building to meet the requirements of his increasing business.

Last Monday being Mr. Samuel Sharpless' birthday, a number of friends from Catawissa and this place improved the event with a surprise party. The attendance was good, the dinner better, and the honor shown this worthy citizen best.

To our sick list we are obliged to add the following names in our present report: Ernest Sloan, G. L. Jolly, Harrie Brittain, Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Fleckenstine.

Lawyer Agib Ricketts preached in the M. E. church last Sabbath. The lawyers, certainly, are not the worst class of professionalists, as is commonly reputed.

On last Saturday the Nimrods of this place engaged in a hunting match. Harris' party was the more successful. The supper was good and should undoubtedly be paid for by his party, as they seemed to enjoy it the most.

HOW TO GET almost Everything.

Do you know how to get in the easiest way and to best advantage what you want for dress and house-furnishing?

First, how: Write for a catalogue; see what you can learn from it about the things you want. If samples can be useful to you, ask for them and state your wants so plainly that exactly the right samples can be sent.

Second, where: The place where goods are kept in the greatest variety; where they are sold for what they really are in respect to quality; where prices are lowest; where most care is taken to serve customers acceptably; and where you have the right to return whatever is not satisfactory.

There—no matter where you are—if you make your wants known and avail yourself of your privileges, you will get the best things in the best way, promptly and without trouble or risk; sometimes by mail, sometimes by express, almost always at less cost for carriage than the money you save in the price.

They Wanted to Live in the Stars.

Very near us sat two young people. He was the face of a man who shaves three times a day, and that white neck he had never seen starlight before. There was pearl powder on the shoulder of his coat and a tender, dreamy look in her lovely eyes. They sat and looked up at the stars, and they didn't care for any stary thing any nearer to this earth. "Mortimer," she murmured softly, "Mortimer—his name appeared to be Mortimer though I couldn't learn whether it was his front name or his after name—"Mortimer, dear," she said if I could only live apart from this busy and unsympathetic world, in one of you glittering cities of golden radiance, living apart from all else, only for each other, forgetting the base things of earthly life, the sordid greed of the world and its unkind instincts, that would be our heaven would it not dear?"

And Mortimer, he said that it would. "Dear heart of my own," he said, and his voice trembled with earnestness, "my own darling Ethel, through all the softened radiance of the day and fall the shimmering tenderness of night, our lives would pass away in an exalted atmosphere above the base-born wants of earthly mortals, and far beyond the chattering crowd that lives but for to-day, our lives refined beyond the common ken—"

And just then the man with the gong came out. Mortimer, he made a grab at Ethel's hand and a plunge at the cabin door. Ethel just gathered up her skirts with her other hand, jumped clear over the back of her chair and after him, and away they went, clattering down the cabin, upsetting a chair, ran into a good sweet old Quaker lady, and banged a bad word out of her before she had time to stop it; down the stairs they rushed, collared a couple of chairs, feed a waiter and open the campaign without skirmishing. I am a man of coarse mold and an earth-born appetite myself and I wouldn't live in a star so long as I could find a good hotel in America; but long, long before I could get seats at the table for my family, Mortimer and Ethel had eaten two fine-fish, a little rare beefsteak, some corn bread, a plate of hot cakes, two boiled eggs and a bunch of onions, and the waiter had gone out to toast them some cheese. Moral. I have during my wanderings, met several people who wanted to live in a star, where earth-born people with human appetites couldn't trouble them, and I always found the safest place for an earth-born man when the star-born soul started for the dinner table was behind a large rock. Distrust the aspiring mortal who lives in a plane so elevated that he requires the use of a telescope when he wants to look down at the rest of us. And if he wants to board at your humble table, charge him $15 a week and feed him on lots of soup or you'll lose money on him.

Good Company Number Twelve.

Good Company, Number Twelve ($3.00 a year; Springfield, Mass.,) closes the volume and subscriptions should be made at once. A specimen copy will be sent to any one not familiar with it for ten cents.

Two papers just read before the American Social Science Association are given, both on subjects which have been attracting considerable attention of late. One, about food adulterations, is by a competent authority, Prof. S. W. Johnson, of the Yale Scientific School. It will dubtless relieve some people who have been somewhat alarmed by recent newspaper paragraphs. The other Associated Charities, explains the modern method of organization by which the various benevolent societies and individuals in a town unite so that a large proportion of money given in charity need not be wasted as is now generally the case, and the deserving poor be more effectively reached. It is by an authority on the subject, Rev. Oscar C. McCulloch of Indianapolis, one of the places where the plan is in practical operation. The other articles bearing on the same general subject are "The Destruction of the Poor" by President John Bascom of Madison, Wis., University, and an account of the doings of the late Conference of Charities and Corrections.

"Savonerola and the Renaissance" is a careful synopsis and estimate of the great reformer's work by Mr. Noble C. Butler, of Indianapolis. There are two stories; "When Two and Two Did Not Make Four," by Miss Louise Stockton; "The New Jerusalem," a Millerite story; and "How Cherry Thought of It." One of the sketches tells of some of the great excursion places near New York where the people flock by the ten thousand in summer; another of a visit to the factory in Meissen, Germany, where such exquisite china is made.

There are also recollections of Seward, Greeley, Lincoln and Douglas; and papers about camp meetings, in favor of family movings as a social benefit, about the servant girl question; besides other articles.

"Taking turns at the Crib," has special application where public officials are about to be nominated.

"No more Laudanum for our babies." All mothers unite in pronouncing Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup the best soothing remedy now sold. It is free from opiates.

Lots of Apples.

The apple crop this year—which is "apple year,"—is thought it will exceed anything in the previous history of the country, notwithstanding there are localities where the crop is an utter failure. It is estimated that the crop this season will reach 200,000,000 barrels, the orchards of the country having not less than 125,000,000 trees in bearing. In New York State it is said that the orchards are indebted to the very ground with fruit, and the soil underneath the trees is knee deep with fallen fruit, for which there is no market. In 1876 the apple crop was about 112,000,000 barrels and valued at $50,000,000. In 1878 the crop was estimated at 150,000,000 barrels. This year's crop ought to be worth $60,000,000 or $70,000,000, and probably will fetch that when we take into the account, besides the apples sold, the larger quantities of cider, vinegar and "apple butter" that will be made. When farmers' cellars are well stocked with apple-butter, cider, pickles, marmalade, &c, as always happens in good apple years, they are able to sell their diary butter, lard and even pork and bacon much more closely, and every pound of these products thus released from home consumption and put on sale in the market ought to be set over to the profits of the apple crop.

Agents and Canvassers make from $25 to $50 per week selling goods for E. G. Rideout & Co., 10 Barclay street, New York. Send for their catalogue and terms. sep.10,'80-1y

For all Female Complaints.

This preparation, as its name implies, consists of Vegetable Properties that have proved to be the most valuable in the treatment of the diseases of the female organism. Upon the receipt of this Compound will be promptly, carefully and confidentially given to any lady writing for it, her case, and what is considered necessary for restoration to perfect health and strength. Full directions will be given in every case for the use of the Compound. Every bottle sold is positively warranted to cure, or the money refunded. It will cure entirely the worst form of falling of the uterus, Leucorrhœa, Irregular and painful Menstruation, all Ovarian Troubles, Inflammation and Ulceration, Floodings, all Displacements and the consequent spinal weakness, and is especially adapted to the Change of Life. It will dissolve and expel tumors from the uterus in an early stage of development. The tendency to cancerous humors there is checked very speedily by its use.

In fact it has proved to be the greatest and best remedy that has ever been discovered. It permeates every portion of the system, and gives new life and vigor. It removes faintness, flatulency, destroys all craving for stimulants, and relieves weakness of the stomach.

Hvening Headache, Headache, Nervous Prostration, General Debility, Sleeplessness, Depression and Indigestion. That feeling of bearing down, causing pain, weight and backache, is always permanently cured by its use. It will at all times, and under all circumstances, act in harmony with the law that governs the female system.

For Kidney Complaints of either sex this compound is unsurpassed.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is prepared at 233 and 235 Western Avenue, Lynn, Mass. Price $1.00. In the form of Pills, also, $1.00 per box. Sent by mail in the form of pills, also in the form of Lozenges, on receipt of price, $1.00, per box, for either. Mrs. PINKHAM freely answers all letters of inquiry. Send for pamphlet. Address as above. Mention this paper.

No family should be without LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S LIVER PILLS. They cure Constipation, Biliousness and Torpidity of the Liver. 25 cents per box.

HOSTETTER'S

STOMACH
BITTERS
Though Shaking Like an Aspen Leaf.

With the chills and fever, the victim of malaria may still recover by using this celebrated specific, which not only breaks up the most aggravated attacks, but prevents their recurrence. It is infinitely preferable to quinine, not only because it does the business far more thoroughly, but also on account of its perfect wholesomeness and invigorating action upon the entire system.

For sale by all Druggists and dealers generally.

PERFECTLY SAFE IN THE MOST INEXPERIENCED HANDS!
For Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Cramps, Cholera,
AND ALL THOSE NUMEROUS TROUBLES OF THE STOMACH AND BOWELS SO PREVALENT AT THIS SEASON,
No Remedy known to the Medical Profession has been in use so long and with such uniformly satisfactory results as
PERRY DAVIS'
VEGETABLE
PAIN KILLER

It has been used with such wonderful success in all parts of the world in the treatment of these difficulties, that it has come to be considered

AN UNFAILING CURE FOR ALL SUMMER COMPLAINTS

and such it really is when taken in time and according to the very plain directions inclosing each bottle.

In such diseases, the attack is usually sudden and frequently very acute; but with a safe remedy at hand for immediate use, there is seldom danger of the fatal result which so often follows a few days' neglect.

The inclination to wait and see if the morrow does not bring a better feeling, not infrequently occasions a vast amount of needless suffering, and sometimes costs a life. A timely dose of Pain Killer will almost invariably save both, and with them the attendant doctor's fee.

It has stood the test of forty years' constant use in all countries and climates, and is perfectly safe in any person's hands.

It is recommended by Physicians, Nurses in Hospitals, and persons of all classes and professions who have had opportunity for observing the wonderful results which have always followed its use.

THE BEST EVIDENCE:

I have long used the medicine known as PERRY DAVIS' VEGETABLE PAIN KILLER in my family and would not be without it. When Cholera was last epidemic here, I used no medicine of any sort but the Pain Killer, and although myself and several members of my family were attacked severely, I am happy to say that the Pain Killer was equal to the emergency, relieved and cured us, and in doing my duty to the community did I not say this much. If I were attacked by the Cholera to-day, Pain Killer would be the only remedy I should use. I have thoroughly tested it, and know it can be relied on.
F. E. BERGINSEND, Galena, Illinois.

Mssrs. PERRY DAVIS & SON:
I know you need no testimonial to convince you that your medicine is all that you claim for it, but I cannot restrain the impulse to communicate to you the fact that in my family it has truly done wonders. I administered it to my children (one eighteen months, and the other three years old) with perfect success. It regulates their bowels, and skips all diarrhœa. Myself and wife resort to it in all cases, both for internal and external use. I've used it in my family for five years, and will not be without it. Feeling myself under much obligation to you, in many times being relieved from pain, I am very truly yours,
L. F. MOORE, Raleigh, Dutchess Co., New York.

No family can afford to be without it, and its price brings it within the reach of all. The use of one bottle will go further to convince you of its merits than columns of newspaper advertising. Try it, and you will never do without it.

Price 25c. 50c. and $1.00 per bottle. You can obtain it at any drug-store or from
